JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 9.

AS TO THE LIST OF OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS OF THE LATE WAR.

1 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY, That the Governor, the Secretary of State, the Adjutant General, the Comptroller and the Treasurer, be authorized to cause to be published such number of copies as they may deem proper of the Record of Officers and Soldiers of the late War, now on file in the Adjutant General's Office; that they be directed to make such disposition of the same, upon such plan and in such manner as shall appear to them most judicious and consistent with the public interest.

2. RESOLVED, That the Treasurer be directed to pay upon the warrant of the Comptroller, the expense incurred in carrying the foregoing Resolution into effect.

Approved April 6, 1871.

REPORT OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
 ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
 TRENTON, July 4, 1876. }

TO HIS EXCELLENCY JOSEPH D. BEDLE, GOVERNOR AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF:

SIR:—I have the honor to submit a special report accompanying the published Official Register of Officers and Men of New Jersey in the War of the Rebellion.

Soon after being commissioned Adjutant General of this State, in April, 1867, I was directed by Governor MARCUS L. WARD, to prepare from official sources the military record of every Soldier and Sailor credited upon the quota of this State during the late War. All necessary assistance was furnished me for the proper prosecution of this labor and it was commenced at an early day. While our State had published a very imperfect work in 1863, a large majority of the States soon after the War had issued complete and reliable records, and by a thorough examination of all these volumes a plan for this Record was adopted. During the administration of Governor THEODORE F. RANDOLPH the preparation of this roster history was continued, and a Joint Resolution was passed by the Legislature of 1871, authorizing its publication. Soon after the inauguration of Governor JOEL PARKER, a contract was made by authority of the Commissioners mentioned in the Joint Resolution to publish the volume, and after considerable delay it was commenced. It has been prosecuted only so fast as the great labor of carefully reading and re-reading the proof, and the verifying of each record would permit. Even with the greatest care the name of a soldier serving more than once during the War, may be spelled very different on different rolls, and there appears to be no way to prove it to be the same individual. I present it now as complete and accurate as it is possible to make it, by a thorough examination and compilation of the data on file in this office and in the War and Navy Departments at Washington.

A few items taken from the official reports of this office during the War period will be of interest. The first troops called into service in this State, was Company "A," National Guards, of Trenton, for special duty by order of Governor CHARLES S. OLDEN, dated April 16, 1861.

On the following day the proclamation of Governor OLDEN was issued, detaching from the Militia of the State, four regiments to serve for three months. The first company mustered in under this call was the Olden Guard, of Trenton, April 23d and within a week thereafter, the regiments were complete and were formed into a brigade, and as such were the first fully organized brigade to reach the National Capital. These regiments were called the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th Regiments, New Jersey Militia, and afterward designated the 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th Regiments of Infantry.

The first call for troops to serve for three years or during the War was made May 3, 1861. Under this requisition the First, Second and Third Regiments, Infantry, were organized and were called the First New Jersey Brigade. Under a second call for troops, July 24, 1861, the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Regiments Infantry, and Batteries A and B, Artillery, were raised. The Fourth Regiment and Battery A were assigned to the First Brigade, and the remainder formed the Second New Jersey Brigade.

Authority was given by the War Department, September 5th, 1861, to organize a regiment of Riflemen, and under this call the Ninth Regiment Infantry was raised and soon after sent to the field.

During the Fall of 1861, two regiments, one of Infantry and one of Cavalry were organized independent of the State authorities. On the 29th of January and February 19th, 1862 respectively, they were by direction of the War Department placed under the care of the State. The Olden Legion was designated the Tenth Regiment Infantry, and the Halsted Cavalry the First Regiment Cavalry, or the Sixteenth Regiment in the line.

In the year 1862, five other regiments were organized under a fourth call, July 7, 1862, namely: Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Regiments Infantry. The organized, equipped and drilled companies of militia in almost every city and town in the State furnished good material and enabled these regiments to recruit rapidly for active service.

Before the regiments raised under the last call reached the field, a call was made by the President, August 4, 1862, for eleven regiments to be drafted from the Militia of the State, to serve for nine months unless sooner discharged. A disposition to avoid a draft was manifested in all parts of the State and the entire quota under the call was filled by volunteers and placed in camp by September 3, 1862. The regiments thus raised were designated the Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth and Thirty-first Regiments Infantry.

Under subsequent requisitions the Second Cavalry, called the Thirty-second Regiment, and Third Cavalry, called the Thirty-sixth Regiment, with Infantry Regiments, Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth and Fortieth, and Batteries of Artillery, C, D and E, were organized and went into active service. The Forty-first Regiment of Infantry was commenced but was discontinued and consolidated with the Thirty-ninth Regiment.

The State therefore furnished during the War, thirty-seven regiments of Infantry, three regiments of Cavalry and one regiment consisting of five batteries of Artillery. At the close of the War they were returned to the State for discharge, excepting the Thirty-fourth Infantry, which was retained in service by the Government until April 30, 1866.

When the Army under General ROBERT E. LEE, invaded Pennsylvania, in June, 1863, universal alarm was created throughout the entire Northern States. An appeal for military aid was made by Governor CURTIS, of Pennsylvania, to the Governors of neighboring States June 15, 1863 and on the 17th inst., Governor PARKER called for volunteers to serve for thirty days, to aid in repelling the invasion. Under this call a full Regiment of Militia, Infantry, and one Battery of Artillery responded. The Twenty-third and Twenty-seventh Regiments Infantry, nine months troops, awaiting discharge, also volunteered for the emergency. A similar call was made by Governor PARKER July 12, 1864, when the cities of Baltimore and Washington were endangered by a threatened invasion of the enemy. The Governor issued a proclamation calling for aid from the Militia, for service in Pennsylvania, Maryland or District of Columbia, to serve for thirty days. One company responded, did the service required, returned to the State and was discharged.

The following statement as appears by the report of this office for 1865, exhibits the number of men called for, the number of men furnished by this State and the term of enlistment, from April 17, 1861 to April 20, 1865:

During the War, three thousand nine hundred and eighty-one (3,981) Commissions were issued by the State to Officers in New Jersey Organizations.

During the Winter of 1863 and 1864, by authority from the War Department, a large number of Men belonging to New Jersey Regiments and in active service, were re-enlisted in the field for three years or during the War, and many men belonging in this State, who had served in regiments of other States, were re-enlisted to the credit of New Jersey.

More men offered their services than the State had authority to accept, and so those who, although they had preferred to enlist in New Jersey Organizations, went into regiments of other States, the Excelsior Brigade of New York, the Forty-eighth New York Infantry, the One Hundred and Twelfth Pennsylvania Heavy Artillery, the Eleventh Pennsylvania Cavalry, First New York Cavalry, &c., &c., and the State lost the credit on her quota.

A large number of men residents of this State entered the service to the credit of the State, in organizations entirely under the control of the general Government. Under the provisions of a proclamation of the President of the United States, January 1, 1863, the enrollment of Colored men in the Army and Navy was authorized. This State had no regiments of Colored troops, but such as were enlisted to the credit of the State were forwarded to the general Rendezvous, at Philadelphia, Pa., for muster in and assignment to regiments of United States Colored Troops. The State lost credit for a large number of Colored men, they having entered the service in the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Massachusetts Infantry, First Rhode Island Heavy Artillery, &c.

The Veteran Reserve Corps was instituted under authority from the War Department, April 28, 1863, and was composed of Officers and enlisted Men who had been in active service but were disqualified for duty in the field by reason of disability, or wounds received in the line of duty. Very many availed themselves of this opportunity, enlisted therein and were credited on the quota of the State.

Under orders from the War Department, November 28, 1864, Hancock's Corps, United States Volunteers, was organized, to be composed entirely of those who had served in the Army not less than two years. A large number of men of this State enlisted in this branch of the service and were placed to the credit of the State.

Under the direction of the War Department, January 19, 1864, recruiting offices for the enlistment of men for the Regular Army of the United States were established in different places in the State. A large number of men were enrolled for this service, and were forwarded to their respective regiments. The State also obtained credit for a large number of men who had been previously recruited, such as Hospital Stewards, General Service, Engineer Corps, Ordnance Corps, Signal Corps, &c.

Under existing orders governing enlistments and credits, the State received no credit for those entering the Naval and Marine service prior to February 24, 1864. Under the provisions of an Act of Congress approved July 4, 1864, it is provided that all persons in the Naval service of the United States, who entered said service during the present Rebellion, who were not credited by reason of their being in said service, and not enrolled prior to February 24, 1864, shall be enrolled and credited upon the quota of the State in which they resided, upon satisfactory proof to the Secretary of War of their residence. The credits due this State under this act were determined by a commission of two, of whom the State named one and the Secretary of War the other. One thousand nine hundred and five (1,905) recruits of this class were credited by the commission, but this number was subsequently increased to four thousand eight hundred and fifty-three (4,853).

On the first of February, 1864, the President issued a call for five hundred thousand men. The quota of this State was fixed by the War Department, and a draft ordered, one in May and one in September. The draft was made but as a large number of those subject to draft had volunteered and had been placed to the credit of the State, very few were called into the service in this manner.

By an Act of the Legislature, May 11, 1864, the payment of State pay was authorized, of two dollars per month for single men and six dollars per month to the families of volunteers in the service. This was disbursed through county, township and city officials. The sum expended during the War to discharged soldiers and families of deceased soldiers, amounted to five hundred and fifty-five thousand eight hundred and forty dollars and sixty three cents ($555,840.63), and to families and dependent mothers, one million seven hundred and sixty-one thousand five hundred and thirty-three dollars and ninety-five cents ($1,761,533.95), total, two millions three hundred and seventeen thousand three hundred and seventy-four dollars and fifty-eight cents ($2,317,374.58). State pay was allowed,

I. To the wife, dependent children or widowed mother of enlisted men (including drafted men and substitutes) in New Jersey Volunteer Organizations, from date of enlistment to date of discharge, death or desertion, provided they resided in this State when the soldier enlisted.

II. III. To the wife, dependent children or widowed mother of enlisted men credited to New Jersey, who re-enlisted in the United States Army, or volunteer organizations of other States, from date of re-enlistment to date of discharge, death or desertion, provided, they resided in this State at the time of said re-enlistment.

A system was adopted for the transmission of money through this office, from the troops in the field to their families at home, and in this manner a total disbursement was made of two millions two hundred and seventy-five thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine dollars ($2,275,989).

The State paid no bounties for Recruits, but bounties were offered by county, township and ward authorities on certificate of muster in to the United States service. It is estimated, that in this way, local bounties were paid in New Jersey, of more than twenty-three millions of dollars ($23,000,000).

During the War, Hospitals were established in this State, one at Jersey City, two at Newark, "Ward" and "Centre Street," one at Beverly and one at Trenton Barracks, Trenton.

Two National Cemeteries have been established in this State, one at Newark and one at Beverly. Within the Cemetery at Beverly, a handsome monument has been erected by authority of the Legislature, and at the expense of the State.

It is well to note here the fact not often stated, in regard to the authority for the muster out of troops at the close of the War, at different dates and places. All these orders for discharge were under the provisions of General Orders No. 77, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 28, 1865, for the general reduction of the Army. The instructions of May 3, 1865, were for the muster out of men in the field; of May 4, for men in Hospitals; of May 12, for Paroled Prisoners; General Orders No. 83, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 8, 1865, for reducing the Cavalry arm of the service, and General Orders No. 105, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, June 2, 1865, for a reduction of Volunteer Artillery.

In the regiments raised in 1864 and 1865, and among the men forwarded in those years to older organizations, a very large number of deserters appear. This should not in any case bring discredit on these organizations. A very large proportion of these men, who were Drafted men and Substitutes, deserted in going from the State to the Rendezvous, at Alexandria, Va., or deserted there before being sent to the companies and regiments to which they had been assigned. The records of this office show the enrollment of a large number of Substitutes, and of their assignment to regiments, but their record after enrollment is unknown. The officers of these regiments knew nothing about these men, and they are not borne upon their regimental rolls.

During the War several Camps of Rendezvous for new organizations were for a time located in different parts of the State. In May, 1862, Camp Perrine, Trenton, was established. In 1863, it was converted into a general Rendezvous for the reception and forwarding of all Recruits, Drafted men and Substitutes received from the many Recruiting Agencies throughout the State.

In February, 1863, a State Agent, to reside in Washington, D. C., was appointed, with instructions to look after the interests of New Jersey, and of the troops belonging thereto, and being close to the scene of active operations, was in constant communication with the several departments of the Government, with the troops at the front, as well as those in the many Hospitals in the vicinity, and was the means of relieving the wants of the Soldiers' especially the sick and wounded. Volunteer Surgeons and Nurses were forwarded to the Army from time to time as their services were required, and Hospital and Sanitary stores transported for the use of the sick and wounded.

The reputation of New Jersey Troops was fully sustained during the entire War, being represented on all the principal battlefields. The First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Regiments Infantry, the Sixteenth (First Cavalry), Thirty-sixth (Third Cavalry) and First Regiment Artillery, served in Virginia; the Ninth Regiment Infantry served in North Carolina and Virginia; the Thirteenth, Twenty-seventh, Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth Regiments Infantry, the Thirty-second (Second Cavalry) Regiment, served in the West and Southwest.

Under an Act of Congress awarding Medals of Honor for conspicuous bravery, quite a number of New Jersey Soldiers' were the recipients of this recognition of their service. The State by a Joint Resolution of the Legislature, March 27, 1866, also presented to all honorably discharged Soldiers and Sailors of this State, and to the widows and orphans of those who were killed or died in the service an "Honorable Testimonial."

In the preparation of this work I have received great aid at times from the Officials of the War and Navy Departments. Wherever the record of any Soldier seemed unreliable by reason of the disagreement of different vouchers, an application to these Departments made the record complete. I am under great obligations to them for prompt and reliable information.

The accurate list of burials of Soldiers of this State in National Cemeteries, has been corrected up to the present date, and to this I am greatly indebted to the courtesy of a most efficient Officer of the Government, Captain A. F. ROCKWELL, Assistant Quarter Master, United States Army, in charge of National Cemeteries. The records of the office show that two hundred and eighteen (218) Officers, and six thousand and eighty-two (6,082) enlisted Men were killed or died in the service. Total, six thousand three hundred (6,300).

I cannot close without referring to the efficient labors of my assistants in this office. From the commencement to the completion of this compilation seven persons have aided in its preparation. To two gentlemen, however, Mr. WILLIAM N. NUTT, and Mr. JAMES S. KIGER, who, in addition to the routine business of the office, and the labor of preparation and publication during this period, of a record of Jerseymen in the Revolutionary War, have worked most faithfully and successfully to make this volume complete and accurate. To them, I must accord much of the praise which, I trust, this work merits.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM S. STRYKER,
Brevet Major General and Adjutant General of New Jersey.

NEW JERSEY VOLUNTEERS.

The second call for troops was made by the President of the United States, May 3d, 1861, and on the 17th day of that month a requisition for Three Regiments of Infantry (Volunteers) to serve for three years or during the war, and General Orders No. 15, War Department Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 14th, 1861, giving the plan of organization, was received by the Governor of this State. A sufficient number of companies having already offered their services, the Governor informed the Secretary of War, the following day (May 18th,) that the three regiments called for were ready for muster. These organizations were designated respectively the First, Second and Third Regiments. Under the provisions of an act of Congress, approved July 22d, 1861, and an official letter from the President, dated July 24th, 1861, authority was issued for the raising of five additional regiments - under this call the Fourth Regiment and Battery A were organized, and assigned to duty with the three regiments already raised and in the field. These organizations constituted and were generally known as the First Brigade, New Jersey Volunteers.

Brigade Band.

Under an Act of Congress, as promulgated in General Orders, No. 91, Act 10, Section 5, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 29th, 1862, the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22d, 1861, authorizing Bands of twenty four musicians to be raised and to be attached to each Regiment, was repealed. Section 6, same act, authorized the raising of Bands of sixteen musicians, to be attached to each Brigade in the U. S. service, to be known as Brigade Bands. Under the provisions of said act, the Band attached to this Brigade was raised. They remained in service until the close of the war, and were mustered out at Hall's Hill, Va., under the provisions of General Orders, No. 2, Headquarters Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac, July 7, 1865.

Fourth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Fourth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, set forth in an official letter from the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 21, 1861, and from the War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 29, 1861. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and enlisted by the 19th day of August, at which time it was duly mustered into the service of the United States, for three years, at Camp Olden, Trenton, N. J., by CAPTAIN ALBERT F. A. TORRINT and CAPTAIN DAVID B. MCKIBBIN, U. S. Army. It left the State, August 20th, 1861, with a full complement of men, Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 874; Total, 909. Upon arrival at Washington, the Regiment was assigned to the Brigade of Brigadier General Kearny, then consisting of the First, Second and Third Regiments, New Jersey Volunteers. Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1864, the greater part of the Regiment re-enlisted in the field, for three years or during the war; those who did not re-enlist and who were with the Regiment, were mustered out at expiration of service, in the field, at various dates and places, by CAPTAIN A. M. TYLER, Assistant Commissary of Musters, First Division, Sixth Army Corps; while those who were absent by authority, reported by order, at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out by CAPTAIN JAMES W. LEON, Second Infantry, U. S. Army. During the fall and winter of 1864-65, the strength of the Regiment was greatly augmented by the forwarding of a large number of Recruits and Substitute. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, when it was mustered out at Hall's Hall, Va., July 9, 1865, by MAJOR A. M. TYLER, Assistant Commissary of Musters, First Division, Provisional Corps, in compliance with orders from War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 1st, 1865.

This Regiment constituted one of the Four Regiments composing what was generally known as the First Brigade, New Jersey Volunteers, and was first attached to the First Brigade (Kearny's) Franklin's Division, afterward to the First Brigade, First Division, First Army Corps; then to the First Brigade, First Division, Sixth Army Corps, and at the close of the war was assigned to what was known as the Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac.

Fifth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Fifth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, as set forth in an official letter from the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 24, 1861, and from War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 29, 1861. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and offered by the 22d day of August, at which time it was duly mustered into the service of the United States, for three years, at Camp Olden, Trenton, N. J., by CAPTAIN ALFRED T. A. TORRETT, U. S. Army. It left the State, August 29, 1861, with a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non Commissioned Officers and Privates, 823. Total, 861. Upon arrival at Washington, the Regiment went into camp at Meridian Hill, D. C., and there remained until the early part of December, 1861, at which time, in connection with the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Regiments, they were ordered to report, under command of Colonel Samuel H. Starr, the senior officer, to General Joseph Hooker, U. S. Volunteers, near Budd's Ferry, Md., where they were brigaded and known as the Third Brigade, Hooker's Division. In August, 1862, Company A was disbanded, and the officers and enlisted men were assigned by transfer to different companies in the Regiment, and under authority issued from War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., a new Company A, of three officers and ninety-six enlisted men was raised, mustered and forwarded to the Regiment in the field, on or about the 1st of October, 1862. Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, a number of the men re-enlisted in the field for three years or during the war. Those who did not re-enlist and whose term of service having expired, reported by order at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out by CAPTAIN JAMES W. LONG, Second Infantry, U. S. Army, September 7th, 1864. During the months of August and September, 1864, a large number of substitutes were forwarded to and joined the Regiment. These men, with those who had re-enlisted and those whose term of service had not expired, were assigned to what was known as Companies A, B, C and D, Fifth Battalion, and continued their organization until November 6th, 1864, at which time they were transferred to and consolidated with the Seventh Regiment, under the provisions of Special Orders, No. 375, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., October 31, 1864, and by reason of such transfer the Regiment as an organization ceased to exist.

This Regiment constituted one of the Four Regiments composing what was generally known as the Second Brigade, New Jersey Volunteers, and was first attached to the Third Brigade, Hooker's Division; afterward to the Third Brigade, Second Division, Third Corps; then to the First Brigade, Fourth Division, Second Corps; then to the Third Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps.

Sixth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Sixth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, as set forth in an official letter from the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 21, 1861, and from War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 29, 1861. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and officered by the 19th day of August, at which time it was duly mustered into the service of the United States, for three years, at Camp Olden, Trenton, N. J., by CHARLES H. BRIGHTLY, 1st Lieutenant 4th Infantry, U. S. Army. It left the State, September 10, 1861, with a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 860. Total 898. Upon arrival at Washington, the Regiment went into camp at Meridian Hill, D. C., and there remained until the early part of December, 1861, at which time, in connection with the Fifth, Seventh and Eighth Regiments, they were ordered to report under command of Colonel Samuel H. Starr, Fifth Regiment, (the senior officer,) to General Joseph Hooker, U. S. Volunteers, near Budd's Ferry, Md., where they were brigaded and designated the Third Brigade, Hooker's Division. Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, a number of the enlisted men re-enlisted in the field, for three years or during the war. Those who did not re-enlist and whose term of service having expired, reported by order at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out by CAPTAIN JAMES W. LONG, Second Infantry, U. S. Army, September 7, 1864. During the months of August and September, 1861, a large number of substitutes were forwarded to and joined the Regiment. These men, with those who had re-enlisted and those whose term of service had not expired, were assigned to what was known as Companies A, B and C, Sixth Battalion, and continued their organization until October 12, 1864, at which time they were transferred to and consolidated with the Eighth Regiment, under the provisions of Special Orders, No. 313, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., September 22, 1861, and by reason of such transfer the Regiment as an organization ceased to exist.

This Regiment constituted one of the Four Regiments composing what was generally known as the Second Brigade, New Jersey Volunteers, and was first attached to the Third Brigade, Hooker's Division; afterward to the Third Brigade, Second Division, Third Corps; then to the First Brigade, Fourth Division, Second Corps; then to the Third Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps.

The regiment took part in the following engagements: Siege of Yorktown, Va., April and May, '62; Williamsburg, Va., May 5, '62; Fair Oaks, Va., June 1 and 2, '62; Seven Pines, Va., June 25, '62; Savage Station, Va., June 29, '62; Glendale, Va., June 30, '62; Malvern Hill, Va., July 1, '62; Malvern Hill, Va., August 5, '62; Bristol Station, Va., August 27, '62; Bull Run, Va., August 29 and 30, '62; Chantilly, Va., Sept. 1, '62; Centerville, Va., Sept. 2, '62; Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Chancellorsville, Va., May 3 and 4, '63; Gettysburg, Pa., July 2 and 3, '63; Wapping Heights, Va., July 24, '63; McLean's Ford, Va., Oct. 15, '63; Mine Run, Va., Nov. 29, 30, and Dec. 1, '63; Wilderness, Va., May 5 to 7, '64; Spottsylvania, Va., May 8 to 11, '64; Spottsylvania C. Seventh Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Seventh Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, as set forth in an official letter from the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 24, 1861, and from War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 29, 1861. The Regiment was fully organized, officered and equipped by the 3d day of September, and although the strength of the Regiment was below the maximum as required, it was duly mustered into the service of the United States, for three years, at Camp Olden, Trenton, N. J., by CHARLES H. BRIGHTLY, First Lieutenant, Fourth Infantry, U. S. Army. At the urgent request of the Government that the Regiment be forwarded to the seat of war, seven companies were dispatched to Washington, September 19th, and reported for duty the following day; the remaining three companies were recruited up to the number required, and left the State October 3d, and joined the Regiment at Washington. The strength of the Regiment being—Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 882. Total, 920. Upon arrival at Washington the Regiment went into Camp at Meridian Hill, D. C., and there remained until the early part of December, 1861, at which time, in connection with the Fifth, Sixth and Eighth Regiments, they were ordered to report under command of Colonel Samuel H. Starr, Fifth Regiment (the senior officer) to General Joseph Hooker, U. S. Volunteers, near Bull's Ferry, Md., where they were brigaded and designated the Third Brigade, Hooker's Division. In the spring of 1862, Company B was disbanded, and the enlisted men were assigned by transfer to different Companies in the Regiment, and under the provisions of Special Orders, No. 134, Par. 7, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 14, 1862, an independent company, commanded by Captain Edward G. Sloat, then at Alexandria, Va., was assigned to the Regiment, and designated Company B. Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 194, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, a large number of the enlisted men re-enlisted in the field, for three years or during the war. Those who did not re-enlist and whose term of service having expired, reported by order at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out by JAMES W. LOUG, Captain Second Infantry, U. S. Army, October 7, 1864. Those who remained were consolidated into and were known as the Seventh Battalion, and so remained until the 6th of November, 1864, at which time the Fifth Battalion was joined to it by transfer. The command was then re-organized and resumed its regimental organization. At different times during the years 1864 and 1865 the strength of the Regiment was augmented by the joining from Dratt Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of large numbers of substitutes. The Regiment continued its organization until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders 24, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated May 17, 1865, were discharged at Washington, D. C., June 1, 1865, the remainder were mustered out of service near Washington, D. C., July 17, 1865, by TIMOTHY W. KILPATRICK, Captain 16th Regiment Infantry, New York Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Second Division, Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac, in compliance with orders from War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 7, 1865.

Eighth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Eighth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, as set forth in an official letter from the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 24, 1861, and from War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 29, 1861. The Regiment was fully organized, officered and equipped by the 14th day of September, at which time it was duly mustered into the service of the United States, for three years, at Camp Olden, Trenton, N. J., by CHARLES H. BRIGHTLY, First Lieutenant Fourth Infantry, U. S. Army. It left the State, October 1, 1861, with a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 851. Total, 889. Upon arrival at Washington, the Regiment went into Camp at Meridian Hill, D. C., and there remained until the early part of December, 1861, at which time, in connection with the Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Regiments, they were ordered to report under command of Colonel Samuel H. Starr, Fifth Regiment, (the senior officer,) to General Joseph Hooker, U. S. Volunteers, near Budd's Ferry, Md., where they were brigaded and designated the Third Brigade, Hooker's Division. Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, a large number of the enlisted men re-enlisted in the field, for three years, or during the war. Those who did not re-enlist and whose term of service having expired, reported by order at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out by JAMES W. LOXG, Captain Second Infantry, U. S. Army, September 21, 1864. Those who remained were consolidated into and were known as the Eighth Battalion, and so remained until the 12th of October, 1864, at which time the Sixth Battalion was joined to it by transfer. The command was then re-organized and resumed its regimental organization. At different times during the years 1864 and 1865 the strength of the Regiment was augmented by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of large numbers of substitutes. Under the provisions of Special Orders, No. 191, Par. 45, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1865, all unassigned recruits and substitutes on duty with the Regiment, were organized into a Company, and were designated Company K. The Regiment continued its organization until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders, No. 26, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated May 17, 1865, were discharged at Washington, D. C., June 4, 1865, the remainder were mustered out of service near Washington, D. C., July 17, 1865, by TIMOTHY W. KELLY, Captain 16th Regiment Infantry, New York Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Second Division, Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac, in compliance with orders from War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 7, 1865.
